Announcing

2018 Chantilly Elite Girls AAU

Chantilly Elite Girls AAU Basket

Chantilly Youth Association (CYA)

Girls 4th grade through 11th grade

Overall cost estimates vary depending on the age group, the division, and the number of tournaments played. The estimated core costs include the following:

- Chantilly Elite pays the club AAU registration fee, players register and pay individually
- CYA Administrative costs and player insurance
- Uniforms (paid individually as needed)
- Gym space
- Equipment
- Approximately 6 tournaments
 - Coaches may elect to participate in more tournaments resulting in additional costs

4th grade developmental teams

- Core costs should be approximately $400
- The focus is on introducing the players to the AAU style of basketball
- Usually a lighter schedule than the older and more advanced teams
- Approximately 6 tournaments

5th and 6th grade

- Core costs should be approximately $550
- Focus is on moving the players to the next level of play and competitiveness with additional tournaments and opportunities
- Approximately 3 additional tournaments for a total of around 9 tournaments

7th and 8th grade

- Core costs should be approximately $625
- The focus is preparing the players for High School basketball
- Approximately 3 additional tournaments for a total of around 12 tournaments

9th, 10th, and 11th grade

- Core costs should be approximately $750 ($975 for Showcase Elite Team)
- The focus
 - Preparing for college basketball for those interested
 - Preparing for High School varsity basketball
- Approximately 3 showcase tournaments for a total of around 12 tournaments

The costs do not include any travel or lodging for the away tournaments. That is paid by the individual families. CYA keeps all costs down to a minimum to make the program as cost effective as possible.

Final costs will be finalized once the teams are selected and the tournaments established.
